

Art Top 5: March 2017

Put these shows at the top of your list.

1

Hélio Oiticica: To Organize Delirium
Art Institute of Chicago

A Restrospective of the Revolutionary Brazilian Artist Who Transformed Art into Life.

2

One day this kid will get larger
DePaul Art Museum

A Bold Show Refocuses the History and Present of the Ongoing AIDS Crisis through the Art of the Struggle.

3

Watercolor Wisconsin
Racine Art Museum

Glowing Colors and Gentle Forms Abound in the Fiftieth Anniversary of this Annual Show.

4

Mariah Karson's Modern David
Chicago Cultural Center

United Only by a Name, these Portrait-Sitters Reveal Themselves and the Breadth of Human Life.

5

Ben Murray
Monique Meloche Gallery

Abstract Paintings Imagine the Void Between Life and Death