

October 31, 2013

Best art exhibit at a gallery

Culture & Nightlife

Cheryl Pope, “Just Yell,” at Monique Meloche Gallery

We are often asked, in our American society, to have a public dialogue about youth violence. Well, artist Cheryl Pope decided to do just that. In a social experiment turned art project, Pope met with local high schools to discuss violent crimes against children in Chicago in the form of poetry and cheerleading yells. These empowering chants became inspiration for Pope’s sculptures, some of which took the form of memorials.

Best of Chicago 2013

- See more at: <http://best.newcity.com/2013/10/31/best-art-exhibit-at-a-gallery/#sthash.Qm4chowq.dpuf>

moniquemeloche

2154 W. Division, Chicago, IL 60622
p 773.252.0299 www.moniquemeloche.com