

moniquemeloche

451 N Paulina Street, Chicago 60622
312 243 2129 moniquemeloche.com

February 14, 2019

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Monique Meloche Gallery is proud to announce our official representation of Brooklyn-based artist Maia Cruz Palileo. The artist's immensely successful first solo exhibition in Chicago, All The While I Thought You Had Received This, has been featured in Artforum, Document Journal, Forbes, and Chicago Magazine, and remains on view through March 30, 2019.

Born in Chicago in 1979, Palileo received an MFA in sculpture from Brooklyn College, City University of New York and a BA in Studio Art at Mount Holyoke College, Massachusetts. Palileo has participated in residencies at Lower Manhattan Cultural Council, New York (2017), Skowhegan School of Painting and Sculpture, Maine (2015), Lower East Side Print Shop, New York (2015), Millay Colony, New York (2015) and the Joan Mitchell Center, New Orleans (2015). She has received a Joan Mitchell Foundation Grant (2018), Jerome Foundation Travel and Study Program Grant (2017), Rema Hort Mann Foundation Emerging Artist Grant (2014), NYFA Painting Fellowship (2015), Joan Mitchell Foundation MFA Award (2008), and the Astraea Visual Arts Fund Award (2009). Recent exhibitions include The Way Back, Taymour Grahne, London; and Meandering Curves of a Creek, Pioneer Works, Brooklyn. Palileo will have a solo exhibition at Katzen Museum, American University, Washington, D.C. in summer 2019. She teaches at Parsons School of Design and LaGuardia Community College, both in New York. The artist lives and works in Brooklyn.

Palileo continues to be represented by Taymour Grahne Gallery.